The following clipping from the Times-Union (Albany, N. Y.) will be of interest to readers here:

One of the prettiest of the late summer weddings took place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. D. Haines, 243 Hudson avenue, when the youngest daughter, Miss Blanche Haines became the bride of Elroy Hinman of this city, formerly of East Craftsbury, Vt., Rev. Burton J. Hotelling, pastor of the Third Reformed church officiating. Miss Haines was given in marriage by her uncle, Nicholas Stott of Troy and was attended by Mrs. Alfred V. Heller as matron of honor, and little Marie Russo, her niece, as flower girl. Alfred V. Heller was best man. The bride was handsomely gowned in white crepe de chine trimmed with silk lace and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. The matron of honor wore white charmeuse with overdress of pink chiffon and carried pink sweet peas. The little flower girl wore a frock of blue silk trimmed with lace and carried a basket of pink and white sweet peas. At the informal reception which followed the ceremony, only immediate relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The rooms were artistically decorated with princess pine and white asters. A buffet supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Hinman left immediately for Montreal, where they will make a short visit, later going to East Craftsbury for a few days. Mrs. Hinman's traveling suit was of green crepe worn with a green hat trimmed with white flowers. On their return they will reside at 131 Eagle street.

J. C. Allen of Burlington is a guest of C. S. Skinner on his way home from an outing at Skinner, Me.

Hon. Henry C. Ide and Bourke Cochran of New York were guests at the Valley House last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Turnbull and Rev. and Mrs. I. P. Chase are taking an automobile trip through Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Twombly were guests of Mr. Twombly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Twombly, last week.

Dr. Hight, chiropodist, will be at the Valley House on Thursday and Friday of this week, the 20th and 21st.

Those who wish to let rooms or furnish board to pupils and teachers please notify Supt. C. L. Erwin. 32-34.

Wallace Sawyer took a trip with the North Troy band which furnished music for Old Home Day at Eden lake Tuesday.

About all the local baseball fans in town followed their ball team to Newport Thursday and were well paid for the trip.

Miss Esther Viden of Quincy, Mass., is the guest of the Misses Eldridge at the Congregational parsonage for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Austin are entertaining Mrs. Austin's sisters, the Misses Perry of Natick, Mass., at Willoughby lake.

Miss Doris Spafford returned Tuesday night from Chautauqua, N. Y., coming by way of Buffalo, Toronto and Montreal.

Frank Parlin has again this season been handling a crew of men, doing repair work and painting at the fair grounds at Barton.

Miss Hazel Harris will teach music and domestic science in the graded schools and academy at Barton the coming school year.

Colby Stoddard and M. M. Taplin went to Burlington Friday, calling en route at different towns in the interests of the Prouty clubs.

Mrs. J. W. Haddock of Lakeport, N. H., and N. H. Magoon of Danville, P. Q., are guests of their brother, Geo. Magoon, this week.

Mrs. Dorcas Willey celebrated her nineteenth birthday Wednesday last week with a party of relatives and friends, both townspeople and out-of-town guests. Mrs. Willey is the oldest resident in town.

Reckless driving and too much fire-water caused one of Orleans' automobile drivers to get into trouble at St. Johnsbury last week, and we understand to lose his automobile license. The steering wheel of an automobile is as dangerous as a loaded gun and run has no part in its proper management.

"By Their Fruits," was the Sunday morning theme at the town church, and "God's Young Bookkeepers" for the children's sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rock Snider, Mrs. Edmund LaFlam and Mrs. Ernest Blanchard were in Richford Friday to attend the funeral of Miss Aureole Lavigne.

Rev. Abram H. Tillson, whose death was mentioned last week, was 78 years of age. His early life was spent in Canada. Mr. Tillson came here from South Berwick, Me., last April to reside with his daughter, and was in failing health then. He was an earnest Christian worker and had labored faithfully with the churches of the Adventist faith in Canada, Vermont, Maine and New Hampshire. He received tender and watchful care from his daughter and husband until his death. Mr. and Mrs. Carter accompanied the remains to Magog to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bullock, where the funeral was held. He leaves several children, grandchildren and two great grandchildren to mourn their loss.

Although Orleans tennis players lost a few more than a majority of the sets played at Barton Saturday, they put up a good fight and showed some very good tennis. These inter-city sets ought to be conducive to better tennis in both villages and the two teams could get together and show some out-of-town teams some real tennis.

Gerald French is having a house party at the C. D. French cottage at Willoughby lake. Mrs. Douglass and son, Francis, chaperoning the party, which includes Miss Hazel Harris, Miss Inez Waterman and two young ladies from Hanover, N. H., and Messrs. Chas. Taplin, Leon Turnbull and Gerald French.

Orleans baseball team starts the week right by winning again from Lyndonville by a score of 7-5 in a very interesting game at Lyndonville Monday. Lyndonville played a different class of ball than that of Saturday and the score was close from the first. Harold Bassett's hitting, however, was a feature not to be overcome by many teams. In five times up he made four singles and contributed to driving in five of the seven runs.

How to Beautify the Hair

A Simple and Inexpensive Home Method.

If your hair is not pretty; if it is losing its color, too dry, matted, falling out, or if the scalp itches and burns, you can overcome all of these conditions by using Parisian Sage, which supplies every hair need. It soaks right into the hair roots, stimulating them and furnishing the nourishment that is needed for the hair to grow not only long and heavy, but fluffy, soft, lustrous and gloriously radiant.

You can get a bottle of this inexpensive, yet delightful and helpful hair tonic from F. D. Pierce or at any drug store. Improvement begins with the very first application. Besides stopping the hair irritation, it removes every bit of dandruff. The use of this unequalled hair tonic will surely give your hair new life and beauty.

Sold and guaranteed in Orleans by F. J. Kinney.
